Artist Biography

Sol LeWitt (1928 - 2007)

Sol Lewitt studied Fine Art at Syracuse University, New York, until 1949 and went on to teach at Cooper Union and New York University during the 1960's and 1970's. He was pivotal in the creation of the new radical aesthetic of the 1960s and rejected the Abstract Expressionist movement current in New York at that time. His focus remained on the importance of the concept or idea and he published the influential text 'Paragraphs on Conceptual Art' in 1967.
