Artist Biography

Allen Jones (b.1937)

Allen Jones studied at Hornsey College of Art and the Royal College of Art in London. Jones was part of the celebrated group of young artists in the 60's who were instrumental in the birth of British Pop Art. In 1963 he received the Prix des Jeunes Artistes at the Paris Biennale. In 1986 he was elected to the Royal Academy of Arts, London. In 1990 he was elected trustee of the British Museum. Jones is best known for his sculptures, oil paintings, watercolours and prints that incorporate the female figure. As a printmaker, working mostly in lithograph and screenprint, he has built up an impressive body of work, and a retrospective of his graphic work was held at The Barbican Art Gallery in 1995. Jones lives and works in London.
